2. A person to whom any function or power is delegated may perform the function or exercise the power in the same manner and with the same effect as if the person were the Board or Board member (subject to any restrictions or conditions imposed by the Board).
3. A person purporting to act under a delegation—
 - 3.1. is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, presumed to be acting in accordance with the delegation; and

4. A person who has been delegated functions or powers of the Board may not sub-delegate to another person without prior written consent of the Board.
5. Anyone to whom a sub-delegation has been made is subject to the same restrictions and terms of reference as the original delegate.
6. No one may exercise any of the Board’s functions or powers without delegation.
7. A delegation by the Board:
 - 7.1. is revocable at will by resolution of the Board and written notice to the delegate (or by any other method provided for in the delegation);
 - 7.2. does not prevent the Board or the Board member performing the functions or exercising the relevant powers;
 - 7.3. does not affect the responsibility of the Board for the actions of any delegate acting under the delegation;
 - 7.4. is not affected by any change in the membership of the Board or of any committee or class of persons.
8. The Board may not delegate any power to borrow money.

Board Committees:

1. Are to be used sparingly to preserve the Board functioning as a whole when other methods have been deemed inadequate.

A person must not be appointed as a member of a committee unless, before appointment, the person confirms to the Board that the person is not disqualified from appointment by reason of any financial interest that would disqualify the person under clause 10 of Schedule 23 of the Education and Training Act 2020.
4. May not speak or act for the Board except when formally given such authority for specific and time-limited purposes – such authority will be carefully stated in order not to conflict with authority delegated to the Principal or the Presiding Member.
